

I am a retired senior. I do not have the money to spend and do not like telephone marketers bothering me. Please do nothing to lessen Indiana's present law. I signed the no soliciting list and have found my telephone calls now are friends and family. A great relief as most marketer's would not listen and I had to ghang up on them. Please structure any laws you might make around and like the Indiana law. Thank you for reading my comments